WEDDING PLANNERS

It can all get a little overwhelming! When should I book the venue? What are my floral options? Who can bake that special cake! This list can seem endless. OK, it's time to employ a Wedding Planner!

A Wedding Planner should take care of these tasks and work alongside you.

As a starting point choose a planner you connect with and trust. Your planner should take the time to understand you and your vision, and thereafter reflect that vision. To select the right planner do a little research starting here with DWHA!

We are delighted to profile ten leading planners from around the World. They have the experience and expertise to help ensure that your wedding day really is the best day of your life!
