WELCOME TO

INSPIRED EVENTS

I'm so excited and thrilled you've decided to inquire about our services and what makes us the perfect fit for your celebration!

Well, there's the usual stuff: we've produced more than 1,000 events in the 12 years I've been in the industry. So, we definitely have the expertise it takes to make your event amazing!

Our food is delicious and our staff is trained, professional, and love to see you and your guests' smile. Our partners are award winning and we've been recognized by The Knot, Wedding Wire, Best of Coral Gables, Ocean Drive Magazine, VoyageMiami, Destination Weddings & Honeymoons, and by many others in the industry as one of the top in our field.

However, this isn't why you would choose us, as others in our industry are also great at what they do. You would choose Inspired Events for the intangibles you can't measure with awards. We are trained on how to keep calm and deal with high levels of stress during hectic times. You would choose us because our experience has taught the team to appreciate patience and the importance of listening and compassion during such a stressful time.

It's our moment to make you shine and that's what we do and do well!

WELCOME

Maggie Rodriguez

Event Production

EACH PACKAGE HAS 10 PRODUCTION HOURS INCLUDED.

PRODUCTION SERVICES INCLUDE:

- Initial welcome email
- Scheduling of appointments (with preferred Inspired Events vendors)
- Food Tasting
- Mid-term production call via ZOOM
- Digital walk thru
- Final production call via ZOOM
- Day of production (limited to package partners)

These hours have been calculated based on the complexity of each service included with your package.

Production hours include texts, emails, meetings, and phone conversations.

*Please note: this is not a full event planning service: we have several planners we can refer for a more complete planning experience

All communication is tracked via planning pod “time entries” tab, and is available for your review on your portal.

Most communication has a value of 0.5 or greater. PDF reports are generated after each communication with any member of our team so you can see how many hours of your planning time you have used at any given time.

Credit is not given for unused time/service.

Additional production hours are billed at $100.00 for junior producers and $175.00 for senior producers

*Please note production hours vary based on event schedule.
